

2017 PENNSYLVANIA JUNIOR WRESTLING STATE CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT SPONSORSHIP

The 2017 Pennsylvania Junior Wrestling (PJW) State Tournament will be held at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Wilkes Barre on March 24 and 25, 2017. This tournament will feature close to 1,000 wrestlers 12 years and under, competing for a PJW state championship. Last time (2011) our Area hosted this tournament was one of the best in recent history, bringing an estimated 2 million dollars to the local economy.

PJW started in 1963 under the name of Junior Olympics for wrestlers in Western PA, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia. Later Ohio and West Virginia were dropped. In 1998 it grew to cover the entire state of Pennsylvania, including Area XII, encompassing 7 counties in Northeast PA. This year's tournament will be the first in Eastern Pennsylvania since we last hosted in 2010 and 2011.

The road to the PJW Championships mimics the High School State Championships and prepares youth wrestlers to compete on that level. The PJW organization prides itself in providing an exciting and entertaining event for participants and fans. Many PJW wrestlers have gone on to national and international success, such as 2000 Olympian and NCAA national champion Cary Kolat, NCAA National Champions Greg Jones, Troy Letters, Jeremy Hunter and Ty Moore. Each year a number of past PJW participants go on to become PIAA State Champions.

Expected attendance for the 2-½ day tournament is over 6,000 people from across the state.

In order to provide an experience of a lifetime for these young wrestlers, your sponsorship is needed. The PJW Area XII State Championship Committee is offering an array of opportunities to put your business in the limelight while helping to develop Pennsylvania wrestling.

The proceeds from this tournament will be distributed to area youth wrestling programs in the Penn Elementary Wrestling League and within the PJW Area XII. In addition, a donation will be given to a local charity.
